Are You Aware?

As I traveled around this summer, I became increasingly aware of the many teachers in existence today. Teachers with a few weeks knowledge, teachers with many years of knowledge. Some were humble, some were not. And as I listened to the words they spoke, it did not take long to learn who were the greater of them. To be impressive, to have a big name, to use big words is not always the answer, what is being taught is what matters, no matter how big or small the teacher is, no matter how well he is known. Many great teachers are working quietly doing their thing. Yet we have many beautiful people that are working before large crowds that are giving the same message. So how do we the student, seeking a path of learning tell what we should learn and what we should listen to? How do we just getting started decide who is the right one to go to?

Every teacher you go to has a different answer, his is the right way, and the only way to go. When I hear this I stop and ask is this right? What has he got that is different from this other teacher that I met over here? Has he got a new secret? Has he found the answer? He says he knows what I need to learn! Maybe he does, but remember that he only has a part of what you need to know.

This age has had a long series of mortals in human consciousness declaring themselves as great, as learned, as holy, as powerful, as mighty and as specially endowed.

Look upon this panorama as it unfolds itself. The procession passes: it is seen by many for a day, a year, a decade, applauded, worshipped and gone.

There were kings who left great monuments as tombs, Caesars and Napoleons in their might, others who used religion as their game. Today it is the same - greed and selfishness are put in high places, groups and organizations of many types are setting themselves on pinnacles, seeming to serve the public, but ever with an eye to watch and obtain personal gain.

Are there any who are honest in this field? Are there people who are really working for others? Yes, many, some will never be seen or heard by the general crowd of people. And yet many are being heard in large crowds that are good.

Many are charging large sums of money for their teachings. Many are charging not at all; yet every one is worthy of making a living; everyone needs to be able to make a living. But look at what the teacher is giving you for what you are paying. Learn to be discriminating. Learn to research your teacher. Learn to be aware!

All things are available to he who seeks. All things are recorded in history. All the teachings of the masters are available to he who listens and lets the answers come. The teacher you follow had to learn his this way, he had to seek the answers out. He had to learn to become aware.

In our distant past we find a few figures that stand out above the multitudes of men, men, who gave all that others might go on. These men were aware of the over all picture. These men were seekers of the truth that found the answers.

But just because we think that these men were special, does not mean that we must sit back and wait for another to come take their place All that is asked of us is that we become aware of who and what we are. In our seeking for the truth we must always keep the fact in front of us of being aware. Being aware of each little fact that we learn, each thought that comes our way, each teacher that we meet. If we can do this we will have the path opened for us and be guided and directed to the right teacher and master and will not have to pick and choose on the conscious level. In the mean time while reaching this stage, take on the task of awareness and see how much your life changes. BE AWARE.

LET THERE BE PEACE ON EARTH

Let there be peace on earth,
Let it begin with me.
Let there be peace on earth,
The peace that was meant to be.
With God as our Father,
Brothers all are we.
Let me walk with my brother,
In perfect harmony.

Let peace begin with me,
Let this be the moment now.
With every step I take,
Let this be my solemn vow.
To take each moment and live each moment
In peace eternally.
Let there be peace on earth,
And let it begin with me.
